Hammond Power Solutions, Inc. (HPS) Joins IMARK Group, Inc.

Effective January 1, 2008 Hammond Power Solutions, Inc. (HPS) has joined IMARK Group, Inc. as a Preferred Supplier.

HPS is pleased to announce that they have joined IMARK Group, Inc. as a Preferred Supplier. IMARK is a marketing group owned by the members of 172 independently owned electrical distributors all over the United States. The members companies serve their local customers at over 1,000 branch locations. With over $8 billion in combined sales in 2007, IMARK Group, Inc. members represent the second largest electrical distribution unit in the United States.

HPS offers the broadest range of standard dry-type transformer products in the industry and has recently experienced extensive growth from a number of markets for these products. HPS is also the North American stand-alone leader for the design and manufacture of high quality custom dry-type transformers. With 90 years of experience in transformer design and development, HPS provides outstanding value and performance for the most difficult applications.
